

SENT TO THE TOMBS.

Witness Noah, in the Hayes Trial, Arrested in Court.

Judge Martine Also Orders the Arrest of Joseph J. Hayes.

Trial Adjourned to Take the Deposition of the Alleged Perjuror's Wife.

The last scenes in the second trial of Col. William J. Hayes, indicted for perjury, are being enacted today before Judge Martine and a jury in Part III, of the Court of General Sessions.

Mrs. Hayes, the wife, who exhibited some self-abandonment in behalf of the husband who brought his mistress, Annie Keating, to share her home with her, was not in court, though her examination as a witness for her husband had not been completed, and her testimony was of the utmost importance to Col. Hayes.

Mrs. Hayes's examination was interrupted Tuesday because she was too ill to proceed. At the opening of court today Judge Martine, counsel for Hayes, announced that he called to see Mrs. Hayes at the Cosmopolitan Hotel last evening, actually that she had been removed to her home. There he read the following letter from Dr. Daniels, Mrs. Hayes's physician, addressed to him:

"Mrs. Hayes's condition was such this noon (Wednesday) that I saw it was useless to attempt to bring her to court. She was removed to her home this morning by ambulance, and her physicians are attending to her. I am sorry to hear of her illness in such a condition that she cannot be brought to court, but I am glad to hear that she is not in any danger."

Judge Martine said he should assume that the above of Mrs. Hayes was in good faith. He should not question the act of her physician.

The case for Hayes was closed, and Assistant District Attorney S. W. Weeks called Lionel Noah, a lawyer, who had an office with Col. Hayes in Brooklyn. Noah was asked about the circumstances of his drawing up an affidavit for Arthur Harris in 1887.

There was some conflict between Noah's testimony and that of Harris, who testified that he was not in court, though his examination as a witness for his husband had not been completed, and his testimony was of the utmost importance to Col. Hayes.

GOLD SITUATION ALARMING.

La Bourgogne May Take Out $5,000,000 on Saturday.

All Sorts of Rumors in Wall Street—Stock Market Weak.

WALL STREET, Thursday, Feb. 16.—Wall street is in a state of uncertainty today on the gold question. There are all sorts of rumors in the air regarding the shipments of specie Saturday by the steamship La Bourgogne, and it is said that the amount may reach $5,000,000.

This, however, has apparently had no effect on stock speculation as yet, judging from the market today, whatever may be the result subsequently.

Bankers as a rule are greatly disappointed in the attitude which has been taken by the Administration, and the refusal of the President to consent to the issue of gold bonds to relieve the present strain, even after the advice tendered by J. Pierpont Morgan, is severely criticized in financial circles.

Many expect that gold exports will now assume alarming proportions since a sterling exchange is pending and silver bills are firm at 4.85.

The fact that sterling loans amounting to $2,000,000 are being raised in London is also a basis for the belief that gold shipments will take a big jump.

The banks are not disposed to give any more of their gold to the Treasury, but what arrangement Secretary Foster may make to obtain the gold is a matter of course.

POSTPONEMENT FOR THOMPSON.

New Jersey's Indicted Statesman Given More Time.

CAMDEN, N. J., Feb. 16.—The case of Anselmus Thompson, indicted for conspiracy in maintaining a disorderly house, in operating the Gloucester race track, was again held today in the Camden County Court, Judge Garrison, Gaunt and McDowell being on the bench.

This is the second indictment found against Thompson, he having been tried some time ago on a similar charge and acquitted. There have been a number of postponements of the second trial, and a determined effort is being made today by the law and order people, who are pushing the prosecution, to have the case go on.

Lawyer Ray, counsel for Thompson, again asked for postponement. He said that Mr. Thompson, as a member of the Legislature, was now in the city, and it was impossible for him to appear in court. He said that he would be in court on Saturday.

Justice Garrison, after consulting with the other judges, announced that the case would be postponed until Saturday. He said that he would be in court on Saturday.
